WCRI 2026

9th World Conference on Research Integrity
May 3 - 6, 2026 | Vancouver, BC, Canada

SPONSORSHIP & EXHIBITOR PROSPECTUS

Invitation to the 9th WCRI

We invite you to become a valued sponsor of the 9th World Conference on Research Integrity (9th WCRI), scheduled to take place from May 3 to 6, 2026, in Vancouver, BC, Canada. The biennial WCRI conferences unite a broad spectrum of stakeholders across all disciplines, career stages, and professional levels in the research integrity field. This includes universities, research institutes, funders, publishers, and government bodies. The conference program offers a dynamic blend of research insights, critical reflection, and policy development. Each conference typically concludes with a significant statement—such as the Singapore Statement, the Hong Kong Principles, or the Cape Town Statement—that shapes global research integrity practices.

The World Conferences on Research Integrity are uniquely international, with each event hosted on a different continent, providing a powerful platform to raise awareness and foster education on responsible research practices in the host country. WCRI is deeply committed to diversity across ethnicity, gender, geography, discipline, and career stages, with this commitment reflected throughout the program, keynote speakers, committee members, and participants. Special emphasis is placed on supporting early-career professionals through doctoral forums, workshops, and meet-the-expert sessions.

Each WCRI explores a central theme while addressing a comprehensive range of topics related to research integrity, research security, and responsible research practices. A core focus is the analysis of factors driving researcher behavior, such as individual skills and virtues, the research environment, and the broader research system's incentives. The 9th WCRI in Vancouver will feature discussions on Indigenous perspectives in research integrity and examine the intersections between artificial intelligence and research integrity.

We anticipate 600-800 in-person attendees, with an additional 400 joining virtually . To promote global participation, travel grants will be available to delegates from low- and middle-income countries.

We invite you to consider sponsoring the 9th WCRI or joining us as an exhibitor to align your organization with our mission to advance research integrity. Detailed sponsorship opportunities are outlined in this brochure. For any inquiries about the conference or sponsorship, please reach out to our team at wcri2026-sponsorship@venuewest.com.

ABOUT THE WCRIF & THE 9TH WCRI

WCRIF

The World Conferences on Research Integrity Foundation (WCRIF – www.wcrif.org) was established in July 2017 as a non-profit organization headquartered in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. The first five World Conferences on Research Integrity were organized by co-chairs and planning committees before the creation of the Foundation.

Mission of the WCRIF

The mission of the WCRIF is to promote research integrity through support for the ongoing organization and development of the World Conferences and all related activities. The WCRIF fulfills this mission by:

- Ensuring the regular continuity of the World Conferences on Research Integrity,
- Maintaining organizational consistency between conferences,
- Managing the WCRI website,
- Publishing and disseminating policies or guidelines developed and agreed upon at the conferences.

WCRIF is governed by a board comprising five to nine members, each serving maximally two four-year terms. The Governing Board elects a Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer from its members to form the Executive Committee.

About the WCRI

The World Conference on Research Integrity (WCRI) is the foremost international event focused on Research Integrity and Responsible Conduct of Research. Since its initiation in 2007, the WCRI has convened eight times across different countries, most recently in Athens, Greece, in 2024. These gatherings have created a robust platform for advancing discussions on research integrity, guided and maintained by the WCRIF.

In 2026, Canada will host the 9th WCRI in Vancouver, BC, continuing this global tradition of fostering integrity in research.
